Keynote Speakers

March 7, 2023

Robin Arzón
VP of Fitness Programming and Head Instructor at Peloton

2x New York Times best-selling author of Shut Up And Run and Strong Mama, Robin Arzón discovered her passion for athletics after healing from a traumatic experience through movement. During this moderated Q&A, Robin will discuss how attendees can turn their inner critic into their inner advocate, by providing them with the critical tools for leveling up to the next area of their life. Greatness is simply the lens through which Robin operates, and she wants others to achieve the same.

Michael Abrashoff
Naval Commander & NY Times Best-Selling Author

Mike Abrashoff is at the center of one of the most remarkable modern day stories of organizational transformation. At the core of his leadership approach is a process of replacing command and control with commitment and cohesion, and engaging the hearts, minds, and loyalties of workers with conviction and humility. Mike will dive deep into an established set of principles that he calls "The Leadership Roadmap" and discuss how you can utilize them to unleash breakthrough performance within your organization.
